For the rapid Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS Bronchitis, whooping-cover CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

TO CURE A COLD, WITH HEADACHE
AND SORENESS OF THE BODY.—Take the
Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, and wrap upwarm, to sweat during the night.
FOR A COLD AND COUGH, take it morning, warm, to sweat during the light.

FOR A COLD AND COUGH, take it morning, noon and evening, secording to directions on the bottle, and the difficulty will soon be removed. None will long suffer from this trouble when they find it can be so readily oured. Persons afflicted with a seated cough, which breaks them of their rest at night, will find by taking the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, they may be sure of sound, unbroken sleep, and consequent refreshing rest. Great relief from suffaring, and an ultimate cure, is offered to thousands who are thus afflicted, by this invaluable remedy.

From its agreeable effects in these cases, many find themselves unwilling to forego its use when the necessity for it has coused.

TO SINGERS AFO PUBLIC SPEAKERS this remedy is invaluable, as by its action on the throat and lungs, when taken in small quantities, it removes all hoateness in a few hours, and wonderfully increases the power and fiexibility of the voice.

ASTHMA is generally much relieved, and often wholly cured by Cherry Pectoral. But there are some cases so obstinate as to sield entirely to no medicine. Cherry Pectoral will cure them

BRONCHITIS, or irritation of the throat and upper portion of the lungs, may be cured by taking Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses. The uncomfortable oppression soon relieved.

FOR CROUP. Give an emetic of antimony, to be followed by large and frequent doses of the Cherry Pectoral, until it subdues the discease. If taken in season it will not fail to outs.

WHOOPING COUGH may be broken up and soon cured by the use of Cherry Pectoral.

THE INFLUENZA is speedily removed by this remedy. Numerous instances have been noticed where whole families were protected from any serious consequences, while their neighbors without the Cherry Pectoral, were suffering from the disease.

Repeated instances are reported here of patients who have been cured from

LIVER COMPLAINTS by this remedy, so many that there can be no question of its healing power on these diseases. It should be perseveringly taken until the pain in the side and other unpleasant symptoms cosme.

FOR CONSUMPTION in its earliest stages, it should be taken under the advice of a good Physician if possible, and in every case with a care ful regard to the printed directions on the bottle. If judiciously used, and the patient is carefully nursed meantime, it will seldom fail to subdue the disease.

For settled CONSUMPTION in its worst form, the Cherry Pectoral should be given in does adapted to what the patient requires and can bear. It always affords some relief, and not unfrequently cures those who are considered pass all cu.e. There are many thousands scattered all over the country, who feel and say that they owe their lives and present health to the Cherry Pectoral.

Pectoral.

Many years of trial, instead of impairing the public confidence in this medicine, has won for it an appreciation and notoriety of far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic fitues and the unmistakable benefit conferred upon thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. White many inferior remedicasufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community, have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

While it is fraud upon the public to pretend that any one medicine will infallibly cure—still there is abundant proof that the Cherry Pectoral control of the contro
